Statement of the Case

Italy, therefore, is requesting the UN Security Council Committee to add these names to its consolidated list of individuals and entities belonging to or associated with Usama bin Laden and Al-Qaida organisation.

II. We believe the indications in the "Statement of the Case" support the decision to block the assets of the following individuals:

1. ABDELHEDI Mohamed Ben Mohamed

5. LOUBIRI Habib Ben Ahmed

III. On the basis of information and documentation collected by law-enforcement agencies, Procura di Milano (Milan Public Prosecutor's Office) and Tribunale di Milano (Milan Court), we know the above individuals are members of a terrorist fundamentalist Islamic organisation operating in Italy (in particular in Lombardy), involved in Al Qaida-related criminal activities.

They all are subject to Tribunale di Milano – Custody Order, 23.06.2003, n. 18953/02 RGNR – n. 4250/02 RGGIP. With the exception of Jammali, in prison in Tunisia, all the listed individuals were arrested on the 24th of June 2003 by Italian law-enforcement agencies and are still in prison, except Trabelsi and El Mahfoudi.

They have been investigated and accused of setting up the mentioned terrorist organisation, arranging their criminal activities together with other individuals already prosecuted (among others: Essid Sami Ben Khemais n° 58 of the UNSCR consolidated list; Adel Ben Soltane n° 60 of the UNSCR consolidated list; Kishk Samir n° 107 of the UNSCR consolidated list; Jelassi Riadh n° 100 of the UNSCR consolidated list) and sharing their extremist ideals.

Their terrorist organisation turned out to be related to the “Salafist Group for Call and Combat” (n° 94 of the UNSCR consolidated list) and to other Islamic terrorist groups operating in European and non-European countries.

The organisation aimed at trafficking in arms and chemical materials and at helping illegal immigrants, militants of the organisation, to enter Italy, also supplying them with forged documents and logistics. In addition, in order to finance terrorist activities, they presented false documentation to help illegal immigrants and received stolen goods and forged documents.

The current investigation brings to an end other criminal proceedings started in 1999 and 2001 on the Islamic terrorist network operating in Lombardy, which had already revealed the leading role played by the mentioned Essid Sami Ben Khemais and his operative contacts with well-known terrorists such as Maroufi Tarok (n° 112 of the UNSCR consolidated list), in prison in Belgium.

Such criminal proceedings proved the terrorist organisation also recruited individuals for training courses in military camps, mainly in Afghanistan.

Spiritual leader and coordinator of the organisation, Essid Sami used some cooperative societies to raise funds for the terrorist organisation and to provide their members with logistical support.

All the above-listed individuals were either involved in the administration of these cooperatives (as founder, director, board chairman or auditor) and/or they were owners of individual companies participating in the illicit activities performed by the cooperatives.

For instance, in order to finance the terrorist organisation, such companies provided some of these cooperatives with false invoices and false fiscal documentation and received the due payments. Unusually, these payments were made by cash, never deposited in any bank account.

Sources of cash for both the cooperatives and the individual companies were also the supply of false documentation to help illegal immigrants (at a price of € 2,500 for each immigrant) and the declaration of false thefts of leased cars in order to bring and sell them in North-African countries.

Law-enforcement agencies' investigations revealed that cash was sent abroad, also through alternative remittance systems, in favour of individuals belonging to Islamic terrorist organisations.

Some office rooms of one of the above-mentioned cooperatives, the Work Service s.c.a.r.l., were used as headquarter. There, during an inspection, forged documents, several leaflets on the Salafist Group for Call and Combat and videotapes regarding Afghanistan, Bosnia and Chechnya wars were found.

Finally, Loubiri had already been involved in a previous investigation carried out in Bologna in 1998, where, during an inspection, several videotapes on para-military trainings and terrorist attacks were found.

IV. Please find here additional information on Abdaoui Youssef, who also took part in the above-mentioned terrorist organisation. As Abdaoui was involved in other criminal proceedings on terrorist activities, Italy already asked to add his name to the UNSCR consolidated list. His name was added the 25th of June 2003.

DOB: 4th June 1966 or 4th September 1966.

Residence: Via Romagnosi, n. 6 or Piazza Giovane Italia, n.2 – Varese (Italy).

Fiscal Code: BDA YSF 66P04 Z352Q.
